COURSE RULES

- Each player must carry a ticket showing the payment of Green Fees or an authorization from the Secretary.
- Appropriate clothing should be worn.
- The wearing of shirts is compulsory.
- Replace divots, repair ball marks and avoid scoring the green with spiked shoes.
- Do not take trolleys or buggies on the greens, semigreens, tees or cordoned off areas.
- Please rake bunkers after play.
- Do not practise on the course; practise with our professionals instead.
- Each player must have a set of clubs.
- Call through faster players.
- Only two players are permitted in each buggy.
- Please deposit rubbish in the rubbish bins.
- Respect the boundary fencing which surrounds the course and do not lift or jump over them.

LOCAL RULES

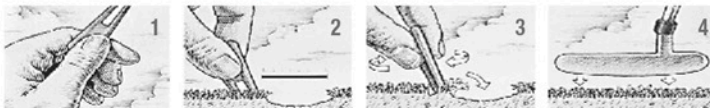

- All of the following obstacles are considered immovable obstructions:
 - The ball may be dropped a club's length without penalty, but no nearer to the hole, in accordance with the rule 24.2:
 - All asphalted roads.
 - All the manholes, water sprinklers and collection chambers.
- The only exceptions to rule 1 are other paths, natural paths & the walls which are understood to be integral parts of the course.
- Stone in bunkers may be removed if they interfere with the playing of a stroke.
- The ball may be dropped without penalty from all drainage channels.
- In the event that the stake or ropes which surround the greens interfere with the playing of a shot, 'It is compulsory to drop the ball one club's length, but no nearer to the flag' (without penalty).
